At the meeting of the Fairfield County Baptist Association, yesterday, the association almost unanimously adopted a motion made by Rev. C. F. W. Ahrens, recommending to all church-es that they expel from membership all who knowingly or unknowingly al low their property to be used for questionable purposes. This motion was adopted after Rev. G. W. Nichgood of the people. "The commission-er told me," Mr. Atkinson said, "I have received more condemnation for my acts from Christian ministers than from anyone else and more praise from the Catholic Clergy." Upon the motion of Rev. H. B. Carpenter it was decided to raise a com-mittee on Civic righteousness to consist of one member from each large community. S. T.
